

Note: It is recommended that the vessel wall be drilled and tapped either with self tapping screws or by using a hand tap. This will allow you to install and adjust the mounting plate without having to enter the vessel to secure the retaining nuts.

The model SPM comes with 1/4" diameter self tapping screws that install easily with a 1/8" pilot hole. This method is suitable for carbon steel vessel wall thicknesses from 1/8" to 1/4"